

Arun Nayyar at Ravissant

The store has come to epitomize all that is fine and refined in India, steadfast in their philosophy to offer high quality goods to a discerning clientele. Ravissant's newest store in Mumbai is an avante-garde delight. Spread over 3500 sq. ft., designed by architect Josef Fluck, the white and pastel shades of green and gray lends it a surreal ambience. At its grand opening, owners Ravi and Mina Chawla with their children Vishal and Charu played gracious hosts as Hollywood celebrity Liz Hurley and beau Arun Nayyar dropped by, to add their own signature drama to the swanky new store. Spotted shopping vicariously were Ravissant loyalists Sheetal and Atulya Mafatlal, Mona Mehta, Shahnaz Mahimtura, Munna and Sudha Zaveri, Sweetie Burman (of Dabur), Dipti Salgaoncar, Lubna Allana and others. A must visit for those looking for true quality and style.

Venue: New India Centre, Cooperage, Mumbai
